

Autism Victoria presents

2005 Autism Spectrum Disorder Research Forum

This Forum is an opportunity to hear about Autism Spectrum Disorder research currently being undertaken in Victoria by students - undergraduate and post graduate, in addition to hospital and university research teams. It will be suitable for students, university staff and clinicians, and will be of interest to teachers and parents. The forum will focus on research matters, and participants should have a reasonable knowledge of Autism Spectrum Disorders and research methodology.

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Professor Patricia Howlin, St Georges Hospital Medical School, London

Pat is the Professor of Clinical Psychology at St Georges and a Consultant Chartered Clinical Psychologist and a Fellow of the British Psychological Society. She has been involved in research and clinical work with people with autism and their families for many years. Her research studies involve home-based treatment programs, follow up into adult life, teaching Theory of Mind and the effectiveness of supported employment.
